Here at Home Farm Livery we take your privacy seriously and this notice provides information on how and why we collect and/or process your data including any information you provide through our website when you submit a contact enquiry or sign up to a newsletter.

We will only use your personal data to fulfil a contractual obligation you have instructed us to undertake and to provide the products and services you have requested from us.

Website Visitors*

When someone visits homefarmlivery.co.uk we use a third party service, Google Analytics, to collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. We do this to find out things such as the number of visitors to the various parts of the site. This information is only processed in a way which does not identify anyone. We do not make, and do not allow Google to make, any attempt to find out the identities of those visiting our website.

Third Party Links

This website may include links to third party websites, plug-ins and applications. Clicking on those links or enabling those connections may allow third parties to collect or share data about you. We do not control these third part websites and are responsible for their privacy statements. When you leave our website, we encourage you to read the privacy notice for each website you visit.

Mailing Lists

As part of the registration process for our e-newsletter, we collect personal information. We use that information for a couple of reasons: to tell you about stuff you've asked us to tell you about; to contact you if we need to obtain or provide additional information; to check our records are right and to check every now and then that you're happy and satisfied. We don't rent, trade or share email lists with other organisations and businesses.

We use a third-party provider, MailChimp, to deliver our newsletter. We gather statistics around email opening and clicks using industry standard technologies to help us monitor and improve our e-newsletter. For more information, please see MailChimp's privacy notice. You can unsubscribe to general mailings at any time of the day or night by clicking the unsubscribe link at the bottom of any of our emails or by emailing homefarmlivery@outlook.com
